

Charlotte Bluegrass Allstars is a talented collective of some of the finest bluegrass musicians in the Charlotte, NC area. This unique collaboration brings together a diverse ensemble of musicians, each drawing from distinct musical backgrounds, including rock, blues, classical, jazz, and jam band influences. United by a shared passion and love for Bluegrass, they've woven a tapestry of sound that expands traditional boundaries and expectations.

Formed in October 2022, CBA has had the honor of playing alongside legendary flatpicker and Doc Waston's guitarist, Jack Lawernce, celebrating Doc's birthday, now on their 3rd annual event. CBA has been direct support for national acts like Leftover Salmon, Andy Falco and Travis Book of Infamous Stringdusters, The Lil Smokies and more. Also with being invited to be featured at FABFEST, Beatles festival, they shined by showing their adaptation to style and genre, while keeping it within the bluegrass realm. The future looks bright for CBA with their new singles "Apple of my Eye", "Bluebell", and "Ember" out now. With more music to come of their own unique sound, ranging from bluegrass pickin and harmonies on the porch, to spacey jams that make you feel at home with yourself. Keep an eye out for the Charlotte Bluegrass Allstars at local venues, festivals and where good folks gather. Whether you're a seasoned bluegrass aficionado or a curious newcomer, their music will sweep you off your feet and into the heart of Appalachia.
